State of North Carolina

PAT McCRORY

GOVERNOR

NORTH CAROLINA SURVEYORS WEEK

2015

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, since the earliest days of civilization, people have depended on surveyors to resolve questions of land boundaries and provide the framework for building infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, many of our nation's founding fathers were surveyors for fellow colonists, including presidents George Washington and Thomas Jefferson; and

WHEREAS, surveyors determine essential measurements, relative position of points or physical and cultural details above, on or beneath the surface of the earth; and

WHEREAS, surveyors continue to play a vital role in construction projects, in how land is shaped and where to properly build structures; and

WHEREAS, the surveying profession continues to evolve with new technology, challenges and methods of understanding the land through this science; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina is proud to recognize the dedicated men and women who make up this profession;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PAT McCRORY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 15-21, 2015, as "NORTH CAROLINA SURVEYORS WEEK" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-fourth day of February in the year of our Lord two thousand and fifteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-ninth.
